DALLAS, TEXAS

@EkoClub_ECI

FROM THE DESK OF
THE PRESIDENT
EKO CLUB INTERNATIONAL
DR. LANRE OJO, RPH

Blessings,

I really thank you all for coming to and joining us here in Dallas/Ft. Worth today. I note also with delight that majority of us here present have travelled long distances to attend this August event. This serves as a testament to our continuous commitment, a show of how important our organization is to us, and how together we have resolved to make a difference in our communities and in Lagos State at large.

“To make a difference in someone’s life, you don’t have to be brilliant, rich, beautiful or perfect; you just have to care enough and be there.” Anonymous. So, I thank you for being here to make that difference. Today marks our 1st quarterly meeting after our biennial convention held in San Antonio, Texas in September, and we (Texans) are very proud to host all of you again. Just before we get started, I would like to express my gratitude to all of you who so generously helped us make this event come together smoothly; we couldn’t have done it without you. My special appreciation to the ECI Executive Council, Council of Presidents, Chair and Board Members, Chair and Secretary of all Committees and most importantly, all members for your passion and commitment to our great club.

During today’s meeting, I would like to focus on our resolved commitments to embark on programs germane to the dreams and aspirations of our founding fathers that are to make a difference in our communities, Lagos State, Nigeria and the world at large. As we are witnessing today, Eko Club, Dallas/Ft Worth chapter is setting the pace in community outreach with Free Health Clinic, Blood drive, free flu shot, visitation and presentation of gifts to Assisted Living Home. These are programs geared towards impacting our communities. I highly commend the commitment of our brothers and sisters here in Dallas/Ft. Worth. Up Dallas Also, the organization is working assiduously on the upcoming medical mission to Lagos between October 21st to 30th, 2020. We are focusing on improving on the past medical missions and how we can better serve our people by improving and making lasting impact in the lives of the people. The Hon Vice President, Saheed Olushi, has been given the mandate to make the mission an historic venture; Hon. Dr. Bamidele Ekunsanmi will coordinate the medical practitioners while Hon Bukky Willaims will work with the nurses. The CLO, Hon. Tayo Ogunyemi, will be facilitating the mission in Lagos.

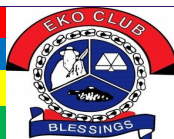

We have succeeded in getting some committees on board with the appointment of Chairmen and Secretaries. So, we should be receiving reports from the committees, giving members the opportunity to contribute based on the reports. We have also appointed some ad-hoc committees to work and advice on special projects in the areas of health, education, and infrastructure. We would be updating members as soon as progress report is available.

Honorable members, as an organization that is determined to make a difference, we definitely can achieve our goals, with desire, drive, dedication, discipline, passion and persistence. The world today can be better, and many lives can be impacted positively in unimaginable ways if we take time to do even little things over and over again that would add up to making a difference in a big way.

Once again; remember, one person at a time, one day at a time and one project at a time, we can all make a lasting impact in the communities we live in. I thank you for coming, and certainly hope you will enjoy your stay in Dallas/Ft Worth. Our inexhaustible and humble President Hon. Ade Adeyemi and all members of the chapter are committed to making your visit to Dallas/Ft Worth a remarkable and memorable one.

“Together We Can Make A Difference” Long live Eko Club Dallas/Fort Worth! Long live Eko Club International!!

Long live Lagos State!!!

CHAIRMAN'S NOTE

Dr. Hafeez Fatunmbi

Dear Readers

I am humbly honored to serve as the current “Chairman” of “Eko Communicator.” This edition of Eko Communicator publication is dedicated to the ECI 4th Quarterly Meeting being generously hosted in the the city of Dallas, Texas, by one of our enviable chapters: “Eko Club Dallas.”

Let me first start by welcoming all of you to Dallas, one of the most gorgeous cities in America. It is very crucial for us to highlight the role and significance of Eko Communicator in portraying, for many years, the overall image and impressions of Eko Club International (ECI), a nonprofit organization that is, perhaps, the most respected of all Nigerians organizations in diaspora.

The practical aim of the magazine is simply to highlight the activities of ECI and its continual benefits to the diaspora communities-at-large as well as to the city of Lagos and Nigeria, our communités and country of origin. In order to accomplish its goals it is imperative that the Communicator committee members meet quite often and attend many of ECI chapters activities; a requirement that revolves each entire year in order to fulfill and I am using this opportunity to highly commend efforts of ECI members that have served over the past years and those that are currently serving in this selfless leadership capacity mandated by the nature of the service as I also pray for everlasting Blessings of wisdom from our almighty God for all members of ECI.

This 4th and the final edition of the year features:

- * The 2nd quarter general meeting held in June and hosted by Eko Club New Jersey for the first time in its 19th years of existence.
- * The ECI 11th Biennial Convention held in September in San Antonio, Texas
- * Ankara night and our youths participation for the first time.
- * The successful Election of new ECI Executives.

On behalf of the Editorial Committee, we appreciate everyone that continues to support Eko Communicator financially and morally to make this publication possible. Congratulations to all our 2019 Graduates!

To all ECI members, welcome to the city of Dallas!

To all our readers, enjoy the Newsletter!

FROM THE DESK OF
THE PRESIDENT
EKO CLUB DALLAS FORT WORTH
PRINCE ADE ADEYEMI

Blessings,

Welcome friends and ECI family, the idea behind organizing this function is to bring publicity and coverage to our cause.

We are delighted to have you with us to participate and share in our end of the year party and ECI 4th quarterly meeting. I would like to thank you for coming. Many of you have traveled long distances to be here and that shows how important this event is to our community.

On behalf of the entire membership of the EKO club Dallas, executives and the planning committee, I welcome all of you to Dallas, knowing that you have adjusted your schedules to accommodate us on this special day.

EKO Club DFW was started almost 20 years with only five members and today we now have 20+ members. Our goal is to raise funds for Heart of Gold Children Orphanage in Lagos and Dallas Life here in the DFW area. We have been diligently focusing our philanthropic efforts towards Lagos and the DFW area and both organizations have historically shown themselves to be effective at providing services to their respective areas. Our mission is to set the pace for others to follow in the society, as well as promote family progress and values, helping poor men and women, both the homeless and abused, through our operational areas the best we can.

Last year, we donated $3,000 USD ($1 Million Naira) to Heart of Gold Children Orphanage along with various medical supplies. We conducted clothes drive to Dallas Life and we personally gave our time by handing out food to members of the homeless community here in Dallas.

I hope that you will understand that any contribution you make regarding money or time will be received with immense gratitude and warmth.

On behalf of the lovely members of EKO Club DFW, thank you all for being here and, most importantly, for making history tonight. God bless you all!!!

Norovirus

It's more than just a cruise ship issue

By Zainudeen Idowu Popoola Aromire

Many associate norovirus with the “cruise ship” virus because the news often features stories about ships having to dock early due to an outbreak.

In fact, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) report that one in 10 passengers between 2008 and 2014 fell victim to this virus. However, despite what the media reports may lead you to believe, norovirus isn't limited to cruise ships.

Because you can contract norovirus from an infected person, from contaminated food or water, or by touching a contaminated surface, it is highly contagious, especially among children and young adults in day cares, schools, and hostels/dormitories. Once infected, norovirus can cause severe vomiting and diarrhea in its victims. Norovirus can tear through a crowd of any size.

At the upcoming ISSA Show North America in Las Vegas, IEHA will focus more on infection control, and how to resolve it if our establishment is plagued with any virus that is common within our industries.

Cleaning professionals are often on the front lines when it comes to battling outbreaks such as norovirus.

We can effectively limit the impact of an outbreak within our facility.

By understanding both the virus and basic principles of microbiology, we can effectively limit the impact of an outbreak within our facility.

Contributing to Impact Lives positively in our Communities

Eko club of New Jersey became a chapter of ECI in the year 2000 and had since been actively participating in all functions, programs, and projects associated with our umbrella organization- Eko Club International.

As a Socio- philanthropic organization, we are manically focused to make impact in the lifes of those citizens that requires one form of help or another in our community. We also ensure that our community back home is not left out of our humanitarian outreach. We have contributed to these through constant participation in ECI sponsored programs by contributions of resources to aid the actualization of stated goals of all programs and projects implemented by ECI from its inception.

Eko Club, New Jersey is poised to impact our community positively; most especially after the rejuvenation of membership and the launching of our chapter in June, 2019. With added membership and focused organization, we set out to achieve the following projects both in the Diaspora and back home in Lagos, Nigeria:

Olowogbowo Primary School Bore-Hole Project:

Under this scheme, we are undertaking the total overhaul of the water project in the School by enhancing the depth of the current bore-hole and providing a new Pumping machine for uninterrupted supply of water for the daily need of students and staff of the School

Re-fortified of Sock –Away in order to prevent Accident:

We are taking a major initiative to prevent accident in the school by repairing damages to the school sock-away by ensuring it is fortified to with stand the weight of daily contact by the students. Currently, the crack to the top is widening hence we have to move swiftly to fortify it.

Provision of Desks and Chairs for the Students & Teachers:

The need to provide conducive atmosphere to aid learning cannot be overemphasized, it was this imperative that made us decide to provide comfortable desks and chairs for students use. We have already identified the number of units needed by the school, and we are in the process of receiving quotes from reputable companies. At the end of this exercise, we will make our selection and we intend to commence this project by the First quarter of year 2020. It is our expectation that, this project shall be concluded by the second quarter of 2020. This project is expected to cost N2,000,000.00

Partnership with Local Organization:

We are in the process of partnering with local organization that has created a niche in providing ser-

Eko Club Philadelphia Stuns at 2019 Eko Club International (ECI) Biennial Convention in San Antonio, Texas

Eko Club Philadelphia (ECP), the city of brotherly love astounded the crowd at the 2019 Eko Club International Biennial Convention in San Antonio, Texas. ECP had 18 members representing our chapter; kudos to all members. Gathering at convention, ECI served as the basis for bonding together as members of one great organization. It was also a platform to choose our new executives for the next two years. The president of Eko Club Philadelphia, Hon. Saheed Omotola Abdullateef emerged as Eko Club International Chief Whip with the slogan name "Baba Koboko."

Eko is a land of rich culture, heritage and Business resources (Eko O Ni Baje O!).

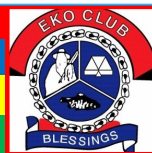

The theme of the Convention was ECI – Education, Community Health and infrastructure. Reflecting on that, Prof. Oki highlighted and suggested how ECI can start their own model elementary school in Nigeria. Dr. Jagun and other health professionals talked about breast cancer, dental hygiene and some critical health issues. Lastly Engr. Gbadamosi touched base on infrastructures.

There was a special youth program attended by our aspiring ECI leaders of tomorrow, and they had a blast. Our young MC Lolastic was able to make Ankara night and youth night electrifying.

The successful completion of the convention would not have been possible without the help of convention committee and dedicated ECI members.

The Lagosians of Chicago has been in existence for 28 years making it the oldest chapter in ECI. We have many contributions to our community both in Chicago and Lagos throughout the 28 years, including and not limited to continual scholarships to deserving students at LASU.

In February 2019, as part of our "Give Back Annual Program" we gave away gently used Nigerian attire to promote our culture in honor of African African History Month. We also taught and demonstrated how to correctly wear our attire. In June 2019, The Lagosians of Chicago volunteered at the Greater Chicago Depository as we do every year. We are cur-
